

The French Revolution

Across

4. The unique cultural identity of a people or country.
5. He was the brutal haed of the Committee of Public Safety
8. The belief in tradition and social stability.
9. This device was used by the revolutionaries to execute opponents.

Down

1. Site of Napoleon's final defeat
2. Government overthrown by Napoleon's coup d'etat.
3. 3rd Estate
6. Storming of this prison began the French Revolution.
7. A sudden overthrow of the government.

10. This code preserved most of the rights of the people gained by the revolution.
12. She demanded equal political rights for women from the new French National Assembly.
16. At Waterloo he defeated Napoleon for the last time.
17. On this court the National Assembly vowed to continue to meet until they had produced a French Constitution.
19. The belief that people should be as free as possible from government restraints.
22. This system was Napoleon's plan to weaken the British economy.
24. An individual qualified to vote in an election.
26. Promotion within Napoleon's government and military was based on ____.
27. Napoleon's military force was called the ____ Army.
29. Legislative _____ is the lawmaking body established by the Constitution of 1791.
30. Prominent female writer who was a critic of Napoleon's rule.
32. Member of the "middle class" they were merchants, bankers, industrialists, professionals.
33. France's chief tax.
34. Island off the coast of Tuscany, where Napoleon was first exiled.
35. Wife of King Louis XVI.
11. Members of the Paris Commune. Means without "breeches."
13. Island to which Napoleon was exiled after his final defeat.
14. Principle that stated that the lawful monarchs from the royal families that had ruled before Napoleon would be restored to power.
15. Napoleon's birthplace.
18. 1st Estate
20. The French Empire, the dependent states, and the allied states were the major parts of Napoleon's Grand _____.
21. 2nd Estate
23. Napoleon's Continental System was designed to defeat this country.
25. The National Assembly's Constitution of 1791 set up a ____ monarchy.
28. This country was able to defeat Napoleon's superior Grand Army by retreating hundreds of miles and burning their own villages and countryside.
31. This group wanted to kill the king, while the Girondins wanted to keep his alive.

This crossword puzzle was created by Jason M. Hauck with EclipseCrossword. Try it today—it's free!